

In 945 in an attempt to obtain a peace settlement with the Scots, Edmund King of Wessex, granted Cumbria (Cumbria) to Malcolm 1st King of Scots, on condition that Malcolm became his helper on land & sea. ~~Malcolm~~ ^{David} died in Carlisle May 1153 after 57th King of the Scots & Cumbria

King Street - the road from Kirk to Beaumont
Many Kings passed through our village

Edward I stayed 2 nights & 1 day before his end on Busby Moor 7 July 1307, before him After laying in state in Busby Church he returned through Kirk and news on the long journey to Westminster Abbey. But 154th earlier David Nesse brought for burial in his native Scot-land

My father's farm ^{Dickinson} ~~is called~~ has an appropriate name Kirkgate, because it stands across from Churchyard gate it was standing here in 1667 between Roman Wall & Vallum